LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Tyler Nixon deservedly took the award at home on Saturday, with 2 points scored and some great contribution all over the ice. It's nice to see him get the recognition. In Bristol on Sunday, Sam Talbot's energy and drive earned him praise after he picked up a goal too.

PLAYER PROFILE

MK born 28 year old defenceman Ben brings a wealth of hockey experience with him from the UK, Canadian and American leagues as well as international appearances at under 18 and under 20 level. In the MKL lineup he made 36 appearances and 5 points in the 2021/22 season. Benny works hard every game, and plays a straightforward, sensible hockey game which up an coming young players can really take note of.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday was a fun night to be a part of. We kept the pace high and were ready from the start. I have not been a part of a game with that score line in a very long time. Everyone contributed to help us get the two points in front of a great crowd.

We knew Sunday would be a different game in Bristol. They played a much better game and were very aggressive. Heds made some great saves when our group wasn't sharp defensively. It was not our best game but we found a way.

We are excited for the challenge this weekend and everyone has to step up. There will be some adversity and how we manage that will be key for us to have success against two very good teams. If we are on the same page, winning our battles, and executing we should have a great weekend.

NOTABLE PLAYERS

Nottingham born Sam Gospel is a strong Goaltender who is a critical part of the Knight's defensive lines. Expect consistent, solid goaltending (and dancing) in every single situation from him. He brings a real confidence which allows Knights to push up the ice and build attacks.

31 year old Matt Haywood brings 10 years of Elite League experience in Scotland before returning home to his native Yorkshire this year. He's already picking up nearly 2 points per game and is a huge offensive threat.

26 year old Jake Witowski is a new-ish arrival to Knights, replacing the departed Grant Cooper. Jake scored a couple of assists in his first game, and brings some top level college experience in the NCAA from Boston University and Canisius College.
