LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Sam Talbot took the award at home to a packed arena on Friday. James Griffin was Man of the Match on Sunday for his great work rate.

PLAYER PROFILE

18-year-old forward Mack Stewart graduated from the Belfast Junior Giants U20 side into playing in the NHL National Division with Leeds Knights in 2021-22, following a brief stint in Scotland with the Solway Sharks.

Having secured a silver medal for GB at the Youth Winter Olympics in January 2020, his breakthrough on the international stage came at the Under 18 World Junior Championships with Team GB this summer, where he made waves by scoring three goals and two assists in five games as an Alternate Captain. The side would go on to clinch the bronze medal.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Another four-point weekend, which we are happy about. Friday at home with a packed house was great to be a part of. Although we didn't play to our standards we played solid defensively. With a few of our D out with injuries I thought they really stepped up and Dan played great as well. We played well in the third to put them away. Sunday in Basingstoke we had a good start and a very good third. We played well defensively again and didn't give them a lot of chances. Jordan had some big saves when he needed to. If we are going to do anything special this year we have to keep playing well defensively. We have to be ready for Hull as they are having some good results lately. We are looking forward to putting on a better show at home.

AWAY TEAM'S NOTABLE PLAYERS

32 year old Matty Davies has returned to Hull after a couple of years in Leeds, to become the Seahawks inaugural Player Coach. He brings experience across a number of top teams in the UK, and was part of team GB in 2015/16. For Hull Pirates he was a prolific scorer and brings that attacking prowess to the Seahawks team.

34-year-old Slovakian Andrej Themar returned to Hull after an absence of 6 years, and after a delay in his work permit approval has hit the ground running scoring 19 points in 9 games. He's known for the quality of his shot and is a huge offensive threat for the Seahawks as they move into the second half of the season.

28 year old Czech Emil Svec joined Hull after spending last year at Swindon Wildcats where he scored 61 points in 47 games. He's a big presence on the ice and causes defencemen all sorts of problems with his direct playing style. He missed the early part of this season due to work permit issues and a 10 game ban.
