LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Millique Martelly bagged the home man of the match against Sheffield, all over the ice and scored his second goal for Lightning too.

Jordan Hedley took the honour at Peterborough, putting in a huge performance to get us the 2 points. Well done both!

PLAYER PROFILE

28 year old Joe had a playing career exclusively in Peterborough where he appeared at junior and NIHL2 level, before moving into coaching in 2017/18 as Assistant Coach of the Peterborough Phantoms NIHL 2 side. Joe then moved to Chelmsford Chieftains as Head Coach in a role which he held for nearly 4 seasons before joining MKL in summer 2022. Joe also plays a key role in junior coaching and development, working alongside former MK King David Clarke as part of his hockey camp coaching team. He's a super energetic coach and person, and brings a passion for coaching, development and analysis to AIB MKL.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Last weekend was the biggest weekend of the year for us and to come away with 4 points is massive. Everyone stepped up and brought their best effort which is all you can ask for as their coach. We came together as a team this weekend and it was a lot of fun to be a part of. We knew we had to have a good game at home and to win 11 to 2 against a strong Sheffield team was definitely a statement. That was one of the best games we've played all year.

The next night in Peterborough was what hockey is all about. It was a battle and a playoff type game where both teams were desperate for the two points. I feel we are coming together as a group, but we can't get too high because the work is just beginning.

NOTABLE PLAYERS

Brandon Ayliffe is a fast moving, agile forward who makes a nuisance of himself in offense all over the ice. He's a good competitor and has picked up 11 points in 13 games so far this year.

Harry Gulliver has scored a point per game so far this year since joining from Leeds Knights and Manchester Storm last year. He brings experience from his time as a junior in Swindon as well as seasons he spent in North America.

This is Matthieu Gomerlic's first year in the UK, having learned his hockey in the Canadian junior leagues. A clear scoring threat, he's picked up well over a point per game so far this year. He joins Raiders on the back of a stint in Atlanta in the ECHL and in the Canadian college system so definitely has loads of quality.
