LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

A double MOM win once more, but this time it was Sean Norris who took the gong in both matches. On Saturday he grabbed an excellent OT winner, and on Sunday he was pacy and lively in all parts of the game. Over the weekend Sean scored 4 goals and 2 assists, so his MOM awards were well earned.

PLAYER PROFILE

MK local Halds grew up in the MK Storm junior system, then spent some time in Slough and Eastern Europe. He then returned to MK to play for Thunder, before stepping up into Lightning for the 2019/20 season. Prior to this year Halds had his most productive season in terms of points in 2021/22, bagging 4 goals and 8 assists in 43 games, and a crucial 3 goals and 4 assists in the playoff run to Coventry. So far this year he's already grabbed 15 points and is playing a major role for the team.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday was a great hockey game. We weathered the storm early as they came out hard and Heds played very well for us all night. The effort was there, and we really did whatever it took to get the two points. Talbot, Norris and Chamberlains line played great for us again, and everybody stepped up to find a way to win.

Sunday on the other hand, we let Basingstoke hang around. We didn't play at our level and were punished for it. We were dealing with some adversity on some calls that were out of our control but we just didn't get the job done. Very disappointing night that shouldn't happen at this point in the year especially with what is at stake. We will make some adjustments and come ready to work at home against Hull.

Declan Balmer is a defenceman who brings Elite Level experience. He played 35 games for Swindon last year and is known for his solid, uncompromising style. He's returning to his hometown Hull to play for a Hull team for the first time in 12 seasons.

28 year old Czech Emil Svec joined Hull after spending last year at Swindon Wildcats where he scored 61 points in 47 games. He's a big presence on the ice and causes defencemen all sorts of problems with his direct playing style. He's scored 27 points in 17 games so far this season.

34-year-old Slovakian Andrej Themar returned to Hull after an absence of 6 years, and after a delay in his work permit approval has hit the ground running scoring 27 points in 17 games. He's known for the quality of his shot is a huge offensive threat for the Seahawks as they move into the second half of the season.
