LAST WEEK'S

MAN OF THE MATCH

Millique Martelly bagged the home Man of the match for the second time in 2 weeks after scoring 2 goals for Lightning against Raiders.

On the road in Romford, Deivids Sarkanis worked hard all night to try and create chances and was rewarded with the MOM award.

PLAYER PROFILE

Andy Watkins has provided years of brilliant service as MKL's equipment manager, and is part of an MK hockey dynasty with his son Daniel and wife Sue who also play crucial matchnight roles (thank you all!). Andy has taken on further responsibility with all of our equipment purchasing, and has shown himself to be super reliable and a shrewd negotiator. Thank you for all your hard work Andy!

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturdays game from start to finish was one of our best games of the year. We had a great start and played fast all night. We deserved more goals but because we were them down the third period opened up for us.

Sunday on the road I think our emotions got the best of us. We actually played a decent game but some things that were out of our control got us off our game. The work ethic was there all weekend but it was an uphill battle on Sunday. Our team is as competitive as any team I have been a part of. This will to win can hinder our mental focus at times. We have to learn from this and stay even keel when adversity strikes.

We will need guys to step up on the road in Basingstoke if we want to come away with the 2 points.

21 year old Reece Kelly is a solid, skilled defenceman for Pitbulls, and is on a 2-way with Cardiff. Consistent in defence, he's also scored 26 points in 37 games so is on hand to add to Bristol's offensive threat too.

21 year old Edward Bradley joined Bristol from Bees where he was second top scorer last year, averaging nearly a point per game. He's been a regular Team GB member at U18 and U20 levels, and spent 5 years learning his craft in the Canadian and American leagues. This year he is also part of a 2-way arrangement with Cardiff Devils.

22 year old Caly Robertson is making an impact this season and really starting to breakthrough. He's Pitbull's second top scorer with 27 points in 33 games. He brings Elite League, NIHL and GB U20s experience to the Bristol lineup.
