RECENT MATCHES
MAN OF THE MATCH

In Saturday's thrilling 3-2 win against Swindon Wildcats, Mack Stewart took home the Man of the Match award after an impressive performance, scoring a key goal and providing a crucial assist. On Sunday, Milique Martelly earned the MOM honour in the away game at Sheffield, netting a goal and showing relentless effort throughout the match.

TIM WALLACE
PLAYER PROFILE

Tim Wallace continued to be a pivotal figure for Milton Keynes Lightning in the 2023/24 NIHL season. Playing in 51 games, Wallace amassed 66 points (23 goals, 43 assists), underlining his importance as both a scorer and playmaker. Although kept off the scoresheet in 2 playoff games, Wallace's experience and leadership were invaluable to the team. Known for his professional experience and high hockey IQ, Wallace remains a crucial leader on and off the ice, guiding the Lightning through the rigors of the season.

COACH'S COMMENTS

Saturday was a great game of hockey. We played with pace and structure and limited a good team to minimal chances. We played as a team, managed the puck and battled to kill some late penalties we took. It was another solid 60 minutes to grab the two points.

Sunday in Sheffield as a group we were a little flat. Sheffield played well and we didn't bury our chances. We ended up having to kill a lot of penalties which took us out of any sort of rhythm. We will learn from this as we have to be ready because anybody can beat anybody in the league. We need to get back playing with desperation and it starts in Romford on Friday then back home Saturday against a solid Bees team.

NOTABLE PLAYERS

Adam Rosbottom demonstrated his leadership and consistency throughout the 2023/24 NIHL season with the Berkshire Bees. Playing in 45 games, the Bees' captain tallied 25 points (11 goals, 14 assists) while providing crucial experience and stability to the team. His contribution extended into the playoffs, where he added 4 points (2 goals, 2 assists) in 4 games. Rosbottom's all-around game and leadership qualities have made him an essential part of the Bees' lineup, both on and off the ice.

Marcel Balaz was the standout performer for the Berkshire Bees during the 2023/24 NIHL season, amassing an incredible 96 points (51 goals, 45 assists) over 52 games. His scoring ability was unmatched, leading the team and playing a pivotal role in their offensive strategies. Balaz's impact continued in the playoffs, where he contributed 7 points (2 goals, 5 assists) in 6 games. His dynamic play and ability to deliver in clutch situations make him a key asset for the Bees.

Dominik Gabaj was a prolific scorer for the Berkshire Bees during the 2023/24 NIHL season, finishing with 105 points (44 goals, 61 assists) in 51 games. His offensive talent was on full display, making him one of the most feared forwards in the league. Gabaj continued his strong form in the playoffs, adding 8 points (4 goals, 4 assists) in 6 games. His combination of skill, vision, and consistency has solidified his place as a cornerstone of the Bees' attack.
