COACH'S COMMENTS

Three out of four points this weekend is not bad. We obviously want better but the effort was there all weekend. Saturday was a story of us not burying our chances and they capitalised on theirs. We had opportunities to put them away and their goalie made some big saves or we just didn't execute. It was frustrating especially with the special night that it was and the huge crowd. Luckily we had a game the next day to put it behind us. We just kept going at Hull and they seemed to run out of gas towards the end. To come away with a score line like that in a tough place to play, was a great sign of what we are capable of when we are willing to lay it on the line. We have certain things we have to improve on and some guys need to take their games to another level if we want to do anything special this year. Another tough test this Friday against Sheffield. We can't thank the fans enough for their support, we plan to put in the work through the week and hopefully have a great weekend.
