COACH'S COMMENTS

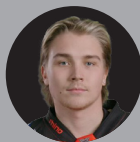

It was a battle of a weekend against a solid Swinton team—overall, a pretty even matchup. I thought we had a good start on Saturday. We were physical and engaged, but then we took some penalties and had a few breakdowns on the pk. I'm proud of the guys for battling back from a three-goal deficit, but unfortunately, a mistake in overtime cost us.

Sunday we played great for about half of the game, then we take an undisciplined penalty and gave them life. We had chances to put the game away - hitting the post twice. Instead, they capitalized on their opportunity, and that was the difference.

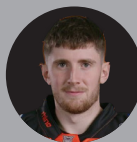

Now, we've got to regroup and do whatever it takes to get the job done this weekend. We can't wait to get the pink rocking one last time at our home base. On behalf of the team, staff, and everyone involved in the club I would like to thank the fans for the unwavering dedication and support for us this year. We are blown away by the energy you bring every week.

In the 2023/24 season, Hållfors played for Unterland in the AlpsHL, where he tallied 29 points (10 goals, 19 assists) in 28 games. His playoff performance was also strong, adding 6 points (2 goals, 4 assists) in 7 games. Hållfors is known for his playmaking abilities and his versatility on the ice, making him a valuable addition to the Steeldogs' roster.

Nathan Ripley returns to the Sheffield Steeldogs for the 2024/25 season after a challenging year in the EIHL with the Coventry Blaze. In the 2023/24 season, Ripley split his time between Coventry and Milton Keynes Lightning, contributing 3 points (2 goals, 1 assist) in 3 games for the Lightning in the NIHL. His physicality and energy on the wing make him a player to watch, as he looks to make a significant impact back with the Steeldogs.
